Just In Case You Missed This . . .

A new color herald book priced this low is a splendid line of art (public domain) and we take the privilege here to call to the eyes of a lifetime of art students and artists of all ranks the many there are demonstrations by Jacques Marais (one of which appears in all issues of our review standard card) (10" by 11 inches) art portfolio. Individually each is a comprehensive lesson in art style and technique for the use of America's most accomplished and temporary artists. Collectively these art lessons comprise a complete course of instruction equivalent to that given by top artists to their own.

If you have missed any or all of our earlier issues and your dealer is unable to supply you, write to us for information. A complete list of all books and news on hand for immediate shipment will be sent by return mail on request.
